We accept that any electronic communication may be subject to interruption, transmission blackout, delayed or incorrect data transmission. We acknowledge and accept that messages sent via email or other electronic means may not be secure or error-free as they may be intercepted, corrupted or lost or may arrive late or contain viruses.

We agree and accept that HSBC does not have a liability for any losses, damages or compensation arising from errors or omissions or lost or non-arrival of messages sent via email or other electronic means.

We undertake that upon discovery of any wording and / or explanation and / or direction in any electronic copy of DCs, their amendments and / or advices provided by the Bank that conflicts with our original agreement with the counterparty of the relevant transaction, we shall notify the Bank in writing and request for re-confirmation within three days from our receipt of the relevant email from the Bank, failing which we will not hold the Bank liable for any losses suffered by us therefrom.

We also agree that due to the limited time of retention of the original notifications (usually thirty days from the date of sending), a statement / report printed from the Bank's terminal indicating the times and destinations in connection with the emails sent to the email addresses designated by ourselves shall be the conclusive evidence of the electronic notifications sent.

The Bank has reminded us of the potential risks that underlie the above terms and conditions, and we are fully aware of the rights and obligations of the Bank and ourselves hereunder. We are willing to accept the services to be provided by the Bank by sending the electronic copies of DCs, their amendments and / or advices to us via email or other electronic means, and we agree to undertake the obligations and liabilities hereunder.

We agree that without prejudice to any right of assignment enjoyed by the Bank under any applicable law or any other documents, the Bank may, without our consent, assign any and / or all of its rights and obligation hereunder to any HSBC Group Member that is more than 50% owned or controlled by HSBC Group.

- We do NOT agree to receive communication regarding the Instant@dvce service (including system enhancement, new features introduction and service outage notification) via emails provided above in any kind.
- We do NOT agree to receive communication regarding HSBC product promotion, marketing information and advertisement via emails provided above in any kind.

We have carefully reviewed all the terms and conditions herein. HSBC Bank (China) Company Limited has made reasonably sufficient explanations to these terms and conditions in the way satisfactory to us. We hereby agree to any terms and conditions herein.
