Debit Card Terms and Conditions of HSBC Bank (China) Company Limited

Article 1 HSBC Bank (China) Company Limited (“Bank”) personal debit card (“Debit Card”) may be used for conducting all automated teller machines (“ATMs”) of the Bank, ATMs and point of sale terminals (“POS Terminals”) of China UnionPay (“CUP”), and ATMs in the participating HSBC Group Global ATM Switch System (“HSBC Group Global ATM Switch System”). The Debit Card can be used for payment, cash withdrawal and balance inquiry, etc.

Article 2 Any individual who has an RMB settlement account with the Bank may apply for a Debit Card subject to the Bank’s identification (document(s)) and agreeing to accept and abide by these Terms and Conditions. To apply for a Debit Card, the applicant shall honestly fill out a Debit Card application form of the Bank, acknowledge and agree to accept and abide by these Terms and Conditions.

Article 3 The Bank issues different types of Debit Card to different customer types of cardholder. The application of use of a Debit Card shall meet the eligible conditions for that type of Debit Card at all times.

Article 4 The Debit Card is a multi-currency debit card. A Debit Card must be linked with an RMB settlement account as its primary account and may also be linked with a maximum of two RMB settlement account(s) or foreign currency saving account(s) as its supplementary account(s). No joint account is allowed to be linked to a Debit Card. Account(s) linked with a Debit Card should be designated by the cardholder upon his/her application for the Debit Card. If the cardholder needs to change the account(s) linked to his/her Debit Card, the cardholder shall apply to the Bank.

In China, the RMB settlement account linked to a Debit Card will be used for cash withdrawal via ATMs of the Bank or ATMs of CUP, or payment via POS Terminals of CUP.

If a cardholder has a cheque settlement account with the Bank and has linked such account to his/her Debit Card, she may apply for a cheque book via the ATMs of the Bank which shall be processed in accordance with the instruction(s) and/or information given and/or shown on the ATM screen.

Outside China, a cardholder may draw cash from the ATMs of CUP (which are not HSBC Group ATMs) or pay through CUP POS Terminals in case the RMB settlement account(s) linked to his/her Debit Card will be used. The exchange rate applicable for these transactions will be determined in accordance with the instructions and information given and/or shown on the ATM screen.

The maximum withdrawal amount shall not exceed the limits of any card or account linked to the Debit Card or Hong Kong dollar limits set by the Bank. If the cardholder fails to apply for setting a Daily Cumulative Spending Limit, a default Daily Cumulative Spending Limit set by the Bank will be applied, and the cardholder agrees that the Bank may deduct the cardholder’s cash withdrawal or settlement balance in the corresponding account accordingly.

To terminate the use of a Debit Card, the cardholder shall submit a written application to the Bank. The Bank may determine at its own discretion all or part of fee waiver for a certain transaction. The Bank will not be liable for any failure to provide any service or perform any obligations under these Terms and Conditions, if the failure is caused by any event or reason beyond the reasonable control of the Bank, including but not limited to any act of any third party, other person(s).

The Bank may determine at its own discretion all or part of fee waiver for a certain transaction. The Bank will not be liable for any failure to provide any service or perform any obligations under these Terms and Conditions, if the failure is caused by any event or reason beyond the reasonable control of the Bank, including but not limited to any act of any third party, other person(s).

The Debit Card service rates shall subject to the charging items and fee rates set by the Bank, the Debit Card service rates in China and overseas may vary. The specific service provided by each channel is subject to the notification given to cardholders by the Bank from time to time by such means as the Bank deems appropriate (including but not limited to public announcement, written notice given at the time of account opening or card activation).

Article 5 If the cardholder needs to use services such as electronic bank statements or account balances in the relevant account(s) linked to the Debit Card, the cardholder shall carefully read and fully understand the terms and conditions of any (if any) related products or services, or any restrictions arising from the use of the Debit Card. The Bank does not have any agency relationship with any third party, nor does the Bank provide any express or implied guarantee or promise for any products or services of any third party. If there is any dispute between the cardholder and the third party, the cardholder shall negotiate with the third party to settle the dispute himself/herself. The obligations that the cardholder bears towards the Bank will not be impacted by any dispute between the cardholder and the third party, or by any judgments, decisions or orders issued towards the third party. The aforementioned third party includes but is not limited to specially engaged commercial entities or card associations from which the cardholder purchases products or services for the purpose of using the Debit Card, acquires or operates acceptance units related to the use of the Debit Card, and other third party institutions or companies which provides self-service equipment, value added service or payment platform.

Article 6 The maximum withdrawal amount shall not exceed the limits of any single cash withdrawal or accumulated cash withdrawal amount at any ATM in or outside of mainland China according to applicable laws and regulations, the maximum withdrawal amount set by the ATMs or the limit set by the Bank (whichever is the lower) will be applied.

Article 7 Upon receipt of a Debit Card, the cardholder must promptly sign his/her name in the designated area on the Debit Card, which must be same as that in the Debit Card application form. The cardholder shall use his/her signature when using the Debit Card. The Bank is entitled to deem each and all transactions done using the PIN of a Debit Card to be conducted by the cardholder, except where there is a PIN disclosure/leakage caused by the Bank’s management problems. Electronic record generated for transaction(s) conducted based on PIN and other electronic information shall constitute valid evidence of the relevant transaction(s).

The Debit Card can only be used by the cardholder in person, and shall not be used by other person(s) or third party. If any cardholder or person shall be rent or lent to others, otherwise the risk of losses associated therewith shall be borne by the cardholder.

Article 8 Through the UnionPay terminals of designated merchants, cardholders can make the transactions by tapping the designated card or mobile device with PINless function within a set period of time. The Bank may arrange any amount and RMB 3,000 per day at domestic merchants, and the transaction limit in overseas may vary. The so called PINless function requires no PIN or signature during the process. PINless function can be used to perform simple transactions. Cardholders can request to disable the PINless function through the service hotline or merchant banking of the Bank. If the cardholder’s Debit Card has expired, the cardholder shall apply for card re-issuance in a timely manner. The Bank hereby reminds cardholders that cards retained by ATMs will be processed by the Bank in accordance with the rules set by the cardholder on the period of such public announcement under relevant laws, regulations or as specified in the relevant terms and conditions of the Debit Card, the Bank will make public announcement thereof through its official web page or other channels.

Article 9 The Bank provides service to cardholders through the Bank’s branches/sub-branches, ATMs and hotlines. The specific service provided by each channel is subject to the notification given to cardholders by the Bank from time to time by such means as the Bank deems appropriate (including but not limited to public announcement, written notice given at the time of account opening or card activation).

Article 10 Disclosure/leakage of PIN is highly risky to cardholders. Each cardholder must take good care of his/her Debit Card and its PIN. Each and all losses caused by improper custody of the Debit Card and/or disclosure/leakage of PIN shall be borne by the cardholder, except where the disclosure/leakage of the PIN or other card information is caused by the Bank’s management problems.

If a Debit Card is lost or stolen, the cardholder must promptly submit a report on the loss of the Debit Card. The cardholder may report the loss of his/her Debit Card at any branch/sub-branch of the Bank or through the hotline of the Bank. If the cardholder has applied for card re-issuance after reporting loss of a Debit Card, the Bank will make public announcement thereof through its official web page or other channels.

Monetary losses incurred as a result of unauthorised use of his/her Debit Card prior to loss-reporting shall be borne by the cardholder.

The cardholder need not be responsible for any monetary loss caused by unauthorised use of his/her Debit Card after loss-reporting, except where the cardholder has acted fraudulently or committed a fraud in collusion with any person(s).

Article 11 A cardholder may apply in written form to cancel any debit card loss reporting. If a cardholder has reported loss of his/her Debit Card, but the lost Debit Card is found before the end of the card re-issuance procedure, the cardholder may make a claim to any branch/sub-branch of the Bank in person with his/her valid identification document(s). The cardholder must collect or set a new PIN of the new issued Debit Card, or cancel the old Debit Card only after he/she has submitted written application of the cancellation of the lost card.

Article 12 If a cardholder has lost or forgotten the PIN for his/her Debit Card, he/she shall (1) approach the Bank with his/her valid identification document(s) and the Debit Card to submit a written application for the PIN resetting, or (2) submit a written application for the PIN resetting application through the Bank’s online banking system or hotline. From the date of the cardholder’s application for PIN resetting, no operation (including but not limited to cash withdrawal, payment or change of PIN) could be conducted through the Debit Card in respect of any and all account(s) linked to the Debit Card, until the cardholder resets the PIN.
Article 13 The Bank provides Debit Card-related consultation and complaint handling to cardholders through the Bank’s branches/sub-branches and hotline, i.e., 95366.

Article 14 The Bank provides account statement service to cardholders. The method and frequency for the provision of account statements will be agreed upon by the Bank and the cardholder when the cardholder applies for the opening of the relevant account(s).

If a cardholder has dispute on any booking item of a particular transaction, he/she must make a request for inquiry and rectification within 90 days from the booking date of that transaction. The Bank will reply within 30 days. The cardholder will be deemed to have recognised all the relevant booking details of a transaction if the cardholder does not have any dispute within 90 days from the bank booking date of that transaction.

Article 15 Each cardholder shall notify the Bank immediately in writing of any change to the information filled in the debit card application form, such as correspondence address, telephone number, residential address, occupation, etc. Any delay or loss arising from failure to give such notice shall be borne by the cardholder.

Article 16 To terminate the use of a Debit Card, the cardholder shall submit a written application to the Bank. Upon acceptance of the application, the Bank will handle the cancellation procedures and the link between the Debit Card and the relevant account(s) will also be terminated.

The Bank may cancel the Debit Card of a cardholder under any of the following situations:

1. The cardholder requests to terminate his/her Debit Card by returning the Debit Card and presenting his/her valid identification document(s); or
2. The cardholder requests to terminate his/her Debit Card by presenting his/her valid identification document(s) seven days after submission of a written loss-reporting confirmation; or
3. The cardholder authorises an agent to cancel his/her Debit Card on his/her behalf pursuant to paragraph (1) or (2) above, in which case valid identification document(s) of the cardholder, agent and agent’s identification document(s) of the agent and photocopies thereof shall also be provided.

In the event of breach of laws, regulations or these Terms and Conditions by a cardholder, the Bank has the right to suspend or terminate the relevant services to the cardholder with notice.

The Bank also has the right to suspend or terminate at any time the provision of all or some services under these Terms and Conditions to any cardholder in consideration of the need to control risk of fraud, unauthorised use or misappropriation without prior written consent of the cardholder. However, the Bank will give the cardholder reasonable notice to rectify the situation or circumstances where the Bank considers it inappropriate to do so for risk control purpose.

In addition to the above circumstances and reasons, the Bank may also suspend or terminate the use of a Debit Card by a cardholder for other reasons including system upgrade, debit card conversion, transaction protection, improve service and etc. without prior consent of, but with a prior notice on public website to, the cardholder.

Article 17 Interest on deposit in the relevant account(s) linked to a Debit Card shall accrue and be calculated and settled in accordance with the Account of Deposit Without Fixed Maturity Date (Other Than Call Deposit and Contract Savings Deposit) General Terms and Conditions.

Article 18 If a Debit Card is retained by an ATM for reasons such as machinery malfunction or operation error, the cardholder shall collect the Debit Card from the bank which owns the relevant ATM in a timely manner by presenting his/her valid identification document(s) and other materials that can support prove the cardholder’s right to the retained Debit Card. If the Debit Card is not collected within due time, the bank which owns the relevant ATM will have the right to deal with the Debit Card according to its internal procedures.

The Bank hereby reminds cardholders that cards retained by ATMs will be processed according to internal rules and practices of the relevant acquiring banks located in various countries. A cardholder whose card is retained shall immediately inquire about the local practices adopted by the bank that owns the relevant ATM so as to collect the retained card in a timely manner.

Article 19 If a Debit Card is damaged or does not work properly, the cardholder may apply for card replacement with the channels provided by the Bank (including but not limited branches/sub-branches, hotline and online banking channels) after passing identification verification. Card replacement is subject to a fee charge in accordance with the Bank’s then applicable Debit Card charging items and standards.

The Bank may, without the prior consent of the cardholders, replace its cards for ineligibility or technical/functional adjustment. The Bank may replace its cards in such manner as the Bank deems appropriate (including but not limited to sending new cards to the correspondence addresses of the cardholders maintained with the Bank or replacing the cardholders to replace their cards at branches/sub-branches of the Bank within the time limit notified by the Bank). The old card held by a cardholder will become invalid and not usable after the invalidation date notified by the Bank in such manner as the Bank deems appropriate (including but not limited to card replacement notice sent together with the new card, public announcement and etc.).

Article 20 For both intra-city cash withdrawal and inter-city cash withdrawal by a cardholder from the Bank’s ATMs in China, the cardholder can enjoy fee waiver.

For intra-city cash withdrawal in China from CUP ATMs owned by other financial institution(s), a cross-bank transaction fee of RMB2 will be charged for each transaction. For each inter-city cash withdrawal in China from CUP ATMs owned by other financial institutions, a cross-bank transaction fee of 2% of the RMB amount (subject to a floor of RMB1 and a ceiling of RMB50) will also be charged for each transaction, in addition to the cross-bank transaction fee of RMB2.

Article 21 For each cash withdrawal outside China from HSBC Group ATMs or CUP ATMs, 1% of the transaction amount will be charged as overseas cash withdrawal fee, and RMB2 or equivalent as service fee.

Article 22 The Debit Card service rates shall subject to the charging items and standards published by the Bank from time to time. In case of any adjustment to Debit Card related charging items and standards, public announcement will be made by the Bank according to clause 29 of these Terms and Conditions.

The Bank may determine at its own discretion all or part of fee waiver for a certain type of Debit Card. If a cardholder has been unable to meet eligible conditions for a certain type of Debit Card type, he/she will not be entitled to enjoy the available fee waivers under that card type (if any).

Article 23 Each cardholder hereby agrees, and authorises the Bank, to deduct any and all charges and fees payable by the cardholder under these Terms and Conditions from his/her relevant account(s) and/or any other accounts maintained with the Bank.

Article 24 The Bank will not be liable for any failure to provide any service or perform any obligations under these Terms and Conditions, if the failure is caused by any event or reason beyond the reasonable control of the Bank, including but not limited to any acts or omissions of any other entities, except where the Bank has committed any wilful misconduct or material negligence.

Article 25 Each cardholder understands that the Bank may from time to time notify the cardholder of any restrictions and guidance on the use of cards in such manner as the Bank deems appropriate (including but not limited to public announcement, written notices given at the time of account opening or card activation). Each cardholder agrees that he/she will comply with and be bound by such restrictions and guidance when using his/her Debit Card.

Article 26 Each cardholder understands and agrees that his/her use of the Debit Card shall be subject to applicable laws, regulations and practices such as those regulating bank cards, use and management of accounts, foreign exchange control. Each cardholder also understands and agrees that, if the provision of any service requires the involvement of any third party (including but not limited to CUP, acquiring institutions, ATM owners other than the Bank), then the provision of such service is also subject to any restrictions which may be made or imposed by such third party.

Article 27 Accounts linked to Debit Cards shall be governed by the Bank’s General Terms and Conditions (For Personal Sole Account, Joint Account and Business Account Holders), Personal Account General Terms and Conditions and the Account of Deposit Without Fixed Maturity Date (Other Than Call Deposit and Contract Savings Deposit) General Terms and Conditions. In respect of the accounts linked to Debit Cards, these Terms and Conditions supplement the Bank’s General Terms and Conditions (For Personal Sole Account, Joint Account and Business Account Holders), Personal Account General Terms and Conditions and the Account of Deposit Without Fixed Maturity Date (Other Than Call Deposit and Contract Savings Deposit) General Terms and Conditions. The rights and obligations of cardholders and the Bank under the Bank’s General Terms and Conditions (For Personal Sole Account, Joint Account and Business Account Holders), Personal Account General Terms and Conditions and the Account of Deposit Without Fixed Maturity Date (Other Than Call Deposit and Contract Savings Deposit) General Terms and Conditions will not be affected by these Terms and Conditions.

Article 28 The expression of “in China” or “in China” used herein means the geographic territory within the People’s Republic of China. The purpose of these Terms and Conditions excludes the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region, the Macau Special Administrative Region and Taiwan. Accordingly, for the purpose of these Terms and Conditions, the expression of “outside China”, “Outside China” or “overseas” used herein means the geographic territories outside the People’s Republic of China and includes the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region, the Macau Special Administrative Region and Taiwan.

Article 29 The Bank has the right to amend these Terms and Conditions and to adjust the charging items and standards for the Debit Cards. For any change of these Terms and Conditions or any adjustment to the charging items and standards for the Debit Card, the Bank will make public announcement thereof through its branches/sub-branches, website or newspapers. There is mandatory provision on the period of such public announcement under relevant laws, regulations or as required by regulatory authorities, the Bank will follow such mandatory requirement; otherwise, the Bank will make public announcement 30 days in advance. During the public announcement period, cardholders may choose and decide whether to continue the use of the Debit Card. In the event of not to continue the use of the Debit Card due to his/her disagreement with any amendment to these Terms and Conditions or adjustment to the charging items and standards, he/she may apply for card cancellation of his/her Debit Card. After the expiry of the public announcement period, cardholders who have not submitted any cancellation application are deemed to have agreed to the relevant amendment or adjustment.

Article 30 These Terms and Conditions shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the People’s Republic of China.

Article 31 These Terms and Conditions shall be construed, amended and interpreted by the Bank. The Bank reserves the right to make any amendments or adjustments to these Terms and Conditions, which will be announced through the Bank’s official website. This version will come into effect from December 1, 2020 and be applicable to all the Bank’s debit card cardholder as of that date.
