Notification of Updating <Tariff of Accounts and Services for Wealth and Personal Banking Business>

Dear Customer:

HSBC China previously issued a notice titled "Notice on the Cancellation of HSBC China Personal Internet Banking Payment Functions" on its official website on 23 July 2026. The original effective date was 24 October 2026. Subsequently, on 13 October 2026, HSBC China issued a further notice titled "Notice on the Cancellation of HSBC China Personal Internet Banking Payment Functions" , updating the system effective date of the above changes to 31 October 2026.

To align with the above business adjustment, some items of the "Tariff of Accounts and Services for Wealth and Personal Banking Business" (the "Tariff") will be updated with effect from 31 October 2026, as follows:

1. "Overseas Remittances: Outward Remittances: Telegraphic Transfer": references to "Internet Banking" will be deleted from the remarks.

   The following paragraph will be deleted from the "Remarks" column of the original "Overseas Remittances: Outward Remittances: Telegraphic Transfer" item of the Tariff: "2. HSBC Premier customers can enjoy free online cross-border CNY Telegraphic Transfer via Personal Internet Banking between Self-named Accounts within HSBC Group. *This does NOT apply to cross-border CNY remittance via Overseas RMB Saving Account/Overseas RMB Settlement Account.*This only applies to cross border CNY remittance satisfying regulatory requirement. * “Free” means that HSBC China waives the local handling charge which should be charged by HSBC China for the Online Telegraphic Transfer via Personal Internet Banking between Self-named Accounts within HSBC Group. ）”

2. “Overseas Remittances: HSBC Overseas Study Remittance”: references to “Internet Banking” will be deleted from the remarks.

   In the “Remarks” column of the original Item 2.2.7 of the Tariff, “Transfer for payment of overseas study related expenses via HSBC Overseas Study Remittance”, references to “Internet Banking” will be deleted, and the remarks will be updated to: “This service is only applicable where the beneficiary country or region is the United States, Canada, the United Kingdom, Australia or the Hong Kong SAR. This service can only be operated in countries and regions where the Global Transfers function is available. This service is not applicable to Global Private Banking institutional customers.”

3. “Electronic Banking Service”: references to “Internet Banking” will be deleted from the remarks.

In the remarks of the original Item 2.2.15 “Electronic Banking Service” of the Tariff, references to “Internet Banking” will be deleted, and the remarks will be updated to: “In respect of remittance via Overseas RMB Savings Account/Overseas RMB Settlement Account, the fee of Intra-city or inter-city CNY cross-bank payment via Personal Mobile Banking charged by HSBC China is calculated by reference to the charging standards of CNY Domestic Payments (Item No.1.3.3) . Besides, additional fees may be charged by the relevant correspondent bank”
