HSBC Global Transfer

Important Notice:

1. All the transfers made by the customer using HSBC Global Transfer through foreign currency deposit account opened with the Bank shall be subject to the foreign exchange administrative and other relevant laws, regulations, policies and regulatory requirements in Mainland China (collectively the "Regulatory Provisions"). The Bank's provision of this notice is aimed at assisting and facilitating the customer's awareness of certain relevant Regulatory Provisions, including but not limited to:

(1) CNY is not allowed for cross-border fund transfer.

(2) Outward transfer can only be conducted through foreign currency exchange accounts, while foreign currency notes accounts are not eligible for either inward or outward fund transfer.

(3) Outward foreign currency transfers conducted via e-banking shall be restricted to the items under non-business current account.

(4) Any domestic individual making cross-border FCY remittance in any day of an accumulative amount no more than USD 50,000 (or equivalent) from his/her foreign currency deposit account may conduct such transfer at the Bank with his/her valid identity certificate. Any transfer exceeding such limit shall be conducted with the proper supporting documents evidencing the transaction amount under the current account.

(5) When conducting personal foreign currency business, both the Bank and the individual customer shall comply with the relevant rules such as the Measures for the Administration of Individual Foreign Exchange, and shall not evade the quota control by splitting the transaction or otherwise or evade the authenticity control with fake commercial documents or vouchers. If the Bank suspects that the customer who submits his/her remittance application is evading the quota control by splitting the transaction, pursuant to the Regulatory Provisions, the Bank shall and has the right to request the customer to provide documentary evidence to prove the authenticity of the transaction (even if the transaction amount is within the applicable limit per year or per transaction). The Bank shall and has the right to refuse to provide the e-banking foreign currency service to any customer who evades the quota control by splitting the transaction.

(6) Instruction for overseas remittance will not be executed unless the BOP reporting is completed promptly and accurately. The customer is obliged to complete the BOP reporting for any funds from overseas remittance within 5 working days after such funds are properly received.

2. Whilst reasonable care has been taken in preparing this notice, the Bank makes no guarantee that the description herein about the relevant Regulatory Provisions is accurate, comprehensive, complete or up-to-date, and the Bank accepts no responsibility or liability. The Regulatory Provisions may be adjusted, updated and amended from time to time and may differ from what are stated hereinabove. The Bank has no obligation to inform the customers of any Regulatory Provisions adjusted, updated and/or amended from time to time in any way. The provision of this notice by the Bank does not represent and shall not be considered as the Bank being obliged to inform the customers of any Regulatory Provisions adjusted, updated and/or amended from time to time. The Bank kindly suggests the customers pay close attention to the Regulatory Provisions adjusted, updated and/or amended from time to time on their own.

3. The customer shall understand that the Bank's exercise of rights and powers required and granted under the Regulatory Provisions shall not affect, and shall be without prejudice to, any and all rights available to the Bank under the applicable terms and conditions, including but not limited to the General Terms for Personal Accounts, Joint Accounts and Business Accounts, Terms for Personal Users of HSBC e-Banking and General Terms for HSBC Global View.

I confirm that my purpose of using foregin currency is consistent with the reason for transaction stated previously. I have read, understood and accepted the above Notice and the Terms and Conditions, and undertake I have not violated the relevant regulatory requirements. Submit Cancel
